 10. The possibilities of Radio when we all broadcast.
5. Title: Lyman H. Howe Present "Hazardous Hunting"
6. Scenes: This is a picture in regular photography showing the capture of wild animals by a mountaineer and his wife as described by sub-titles as follows:-
 1. A daring Montana mountaineer and his fearless wife have adopted the strange vocation of capturing wild animals alive in the Rockies.
 2. AT BAY TREED!
 3. Note the mountain lion on the topmost branch and how the mountaineer throws a noose over its head.
 4. The hounds are something of tree climbers themselves.
 5. The dogs do not harm the wild animal, but merely harass it while the hunters perform their work.
 6. "Friend Wife" comes in at the tail-end of the capture
 7. Muzzling the captive is the most dangerous part of the procedure.
 8. The animal is caged and unleashed and made ready for shipment to the zoo--
 9. --where the remainder of its days are spent in well-fed ease before the gaze of the visiting multitudes.
7. Title: When the fire cracker cracks.
8. Scene: Trick picture showing an exploding giant fire cracker in which the words "The End" appear at the finish.

Length of Film - 783 Feet.
